Re: United States of America v. Rose (Nathanial Coles)
Ind. No.: 19 Cr. 789 (PGG)

Dear Judge Gardephe:

My client, Nathanial Coles, is presently out on bail, under the condition that he remain in either the SDNY or EDNY. Previously, I requested that he be permitted to travel to Buffalo on November 25 and that request was granted. However, Mr. Coles was unable to make the trip on that day. It is therefore respectfully requested that this Court permit his PTS Officer the discretion to grant any subsequent travel to Buffalo assuming he provides them with all necessary details of the trips.

Both PTS and the government have no objection to this request.

Thank you for your consideration.

MEMO ENDORSED

The Application is granted.
